

Past Simple Tense #2

When asking a question in past simple tense, we use the word 'did'. The verbs in the questions do not change to past simple tense form.

- Did you kick the ball?
- Did he walk to school?
- Did I do that?

The negative of 'did' is 'did not', or 'didn't' for short.

- I didn't read the book.
- He didn't go to school.
- They didn't cook dinner.

We can gather more information by adding 'who', 'what', 'where', 'when' or 'how' before 'did'.

- Who did he talk to?
- What did you cook?
- Where did he go?
- When did he go on holiday?
- How did he make that?
