

Reading and Writing: Vegetables

I am a carrot. I am orange.
I grow in the ground. I am
a root vegetable. I have long leaves growing at the top of me.

Answer the questions.

What vegetable are we talking about?

What color can the vegetable be?

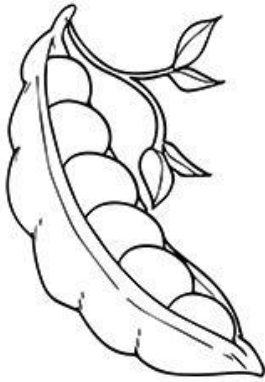

Where does the vegetable grow?

What kind of vegetable is it?

What does the vegetable have?

Reading and Writing: Vegetables

We are peas. We are green. We grow on vines. We are a seed vegetable. We have pods that we grow in.

Answer the questions.

What vegetable are we talking about?

What color can the vegetable be?

Where does the vegetable grow?

What kind of vegetable is it?

What does the vegetable have?

Reading and Writing: Vegetables

I am a broccoli. I am green. I grow on the ground. I am a flower vegetable. I have a stalk that is good for you.

Answer the questions.

What vegetable are we talking about?

What color can the vegetable be?

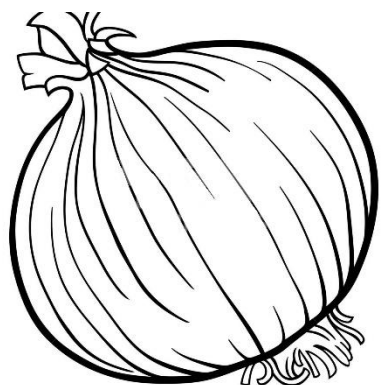

Where does the vegetable grow?

What kind of vegetable is it?

What does the vegetable have?

Reading and Writing: Vegetables

I am an onion. I am white.
I grow in the ground. I am
a root vegetable. I have thin brown skin that you peel off.

Answer the questions.

What vegetable are we talking about?

What color can the vegetable be?

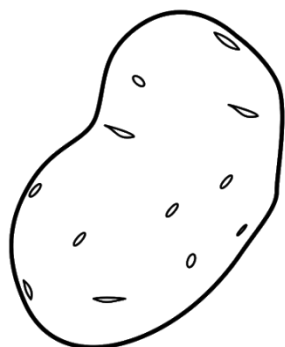

Where does the vegetable grow?

What kind of vegetable is it?

What does the vegetable have?

Reading and Writing: Vegetables

I am a potato. I can be white, red or brown. I grow in the ground. I am a root vegetable. I have many different types.

Answer the questions.

What vegetable are we talking about?

What color can the vegetable be?

Where does the vegetable grow?

What kind of vegetable is it?

What does the vegetable have?

Reading and Writing: Vegetables

I am a bell pepper. I can be green, red or yellow. I grow on vines. I am a fruit vegetable. I have many different types of flavors.

Answer the questions.

What vegetable are we talking about?

What color can the vegetable be?

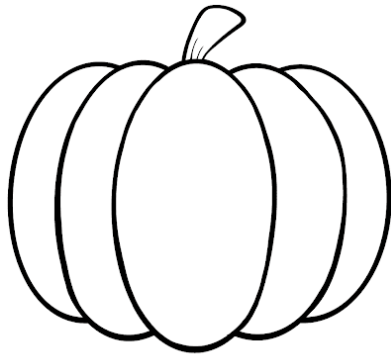

Where does the vegetable grow?

What kind of vegetable is it?

What does the vegetable have?

Reading and Writing: Vegetables

I am a pumpkin. I am orange. I grow on vines. I am a fruit vegetable. I have a thick hard skin that needs to be carved.

Answer the questions.

What vegetable are we talking about?

What color can the vegetable be?

Where does the vegetable grow?

What kind of vegetable is it?

What does the vegetable have?

