

Kindergarten Reading: Silly Ants

After school, the ant and the beetle went back home. It was a very far journey. They made it back to the ant's home. It looked like two apples that were together!

The ant said goodbye to the beetle but soon realized he forgot his book! The beetle said, "don't worry, I have it in my bag". The ant took out the book and thanked the beetle. He read his story before the beetle set off home.

Kindergarten Reading: Silly Ants

It was time to redecorate the ant home! It was getting old and mother ant was coming to visit! The three ants got some flowers from a nearby patch and went on the house. They decided it'd be nice to have flowers coming out from the top. "Oh no!" One of the ants didn't follow the others. He dug a hole thinking they'd plant the flowers outside the home. Mother ant will not be happy!

Kindergarten Reading: Silly Ants

It was a nice sunny day and silly ant didn't know what to do! He went outside to find some friends. He walked far but couldn't find anyone, until he heard faint noises. "It sounds like... music?" he said. He rushed towards the sound and he came across a trio of bees and a ladybug! "Can I join you guys?" the ant asked. "Well yes you can! Grab a hat and play that trumpet!" blurted the ladybug.

Kindergarten Reading: Silly Ants

The ants went out one day for a walk. They came across a log that came from a tree. "What can we do with it?" asked one of the ants. "You can put flowers on it to make it look more beautiful!" said the butterfly. The ants thought it was a great idea! They all got a flower and started decorating. But they thought they could draw on the log with their flowers!

