

Primary Grammar: Capitalization 2

---

We always capitalize proper nouns (names of specific things) in English. There are many other rules when it comes to capitalization.

We need to capitalize cities and countries.

- I live in Hong Kong.
- My father is from Scotland.
- I live in London.

We also need to capitalize nationalities and languages.

- We speak English in England.
- They speak French in France.
- People from America are called Americans.
- People from China are called Chinese.

Names of specific things.

- The Great Wall of China is in Beijing.
- The Rainforest has many animals.
- The Eiffel Tower is in Paris.
- Egypt is famous for their Pyramids.
