

Present Tense Two Verbs

A sentence can have more than one verb when using a conjunction or preposition in between the two.

Do you remember your conjunctions? Conjunctions are linking words that make our sentences longer!

Here are some!

and	or	but
yet	nor	so
for	because	while
after	once	when
until	who	so that

Can you think of anymore conjunctions?

Present Tense Two Verbs

Underline the verbs. Highlight the conjunctions if you see any.

He walks to school to find his teacher.

She finds her cat and carries it home.

I sleep on the bed to get a good rest.

I need to finish my work and then I can go shopping.

My mother goes for a walk in the afternoon.

They want to go bowling after they finish their homework.

She wants to go on holiday and swim in the sea.

He needs to find the answer or get help.

I like to play football on the weekends.

When you finish, come and see me.

They go to the movies to see the newest film.

Present Tense Two Verbs

What tense were all the sentences written in? _____

Did you notice how many verbs are in each sentence? _____

If the subject is 'he', 'she', or 'it', the verb ends in s, what did you notice with these sentences?

If a sentence has more than one verb and the subject is 'he', 'she', or 'it', we only make sure the first verb ends with 's'.

Try and write a sentence using the two verbs provided and the subject in the bracket. Try and not use any conjunctions.

need walk (he)

want finish (I) go play (she)

need sleep (they)

Present Tense Two Verbs

Write 4 sentences with two verbs in present tense with no conjunctions.

Write 4 sentences with two verbs in present tense with conjunctions.

