

Opening

“Good morning, respected Principal, teachers, and my dear friends. On behalf of [School Name], I welcome you all to today’s assembly. Let us begin this beautiful morning with a prayer to seek blessings for the day ahead.”

Prayer & National Anthem

“Kindly join your hands and close your eyes for the prayer. Thank you. Now, let us stand together for the National Anthem.”

Thought for the Day

“Every day is a new opportunity to learn and grow. Today’s thought is: ‘Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world.’ Let us carry this thought into our classrooms.”

News Headlines

“Knowledge keeps us connected to the world. Here are today’s headlines:

- [Insert 2–3 current national/international news items]
- [Insert 1 school-related update if available]”

Announcements

“Now, I would like to share some important announcements:

- [Upcoming events, competitions, or notices]
- [Achievements of students or staff]”

Motivational Segment

“To inspire us further, I invite [Teacher/Student] to share a short motivational speech.”

Fun Activity (Optional)

“Let’s engage in a quick quiz. I’ll ask a question, and whoever knows the answer can raise their hand. Question: Who is known as the Father of the Nation? Answer: Mahatma Gandhi.”

Closing

“As we conclude today’s assembly, let us remember the thought of the day and apply it in our lives. Thank you for your attention. Have a wonderful day ahead.”

Tips for Anchors

- Speak clearly and confidently.
- Keep transitions smooth and respectful.
- Balance formal segments with light engagement.
- Personalize with school achievements or anecdotes.