

Republic Day Anchoring Script Worksheet

Instructions

Use the sample scripts below to rehearse your Republic Day anchoring. Fill in the blanks with names, roles, and performance details. Practice speaking clearly, using respectful transitions, and engaging your audience.

Example 1: School Assembly Script

Opening Greeting: “Good morning, respected Principal, teachers, and dear students. Today, we gather to celebrate the _____ Republic Day of India.”

Flag Hoisting: “We invite _____ to hoist the national flag. Please stand for the National Anthem.”

Thought for the Day: “Let’s begin with a thought shared by _____.”

Cultural Segment: “Up next, we have a patriotic song by _____, followed by a dance performance by _____.”

Closing: “Let’s conclude with the national song, Vande Mataram. Jai Hind!”

Example 2: College Event Script

Opening: “Good morning to our esteemed guests, faculty, and fellow students. Today, we honor the values of our Constitution on Republic Day.”

Chief Guest Introduction: “We are privileged to welcome _____, who will now share their thoughts on this occasion.”

Performances: “Let’s enjoy a musical tribute by _____ and a skit titled ‘Voices of the Constitution’ by _____.”

Closing: “Thank you for joining us. Let’s pledge to uphold the spirit of our Republic. Jai Hind!”

Example 3: Public Ceremony Script

Opening: “Namaste and welcome to our Republic Day celebration. Today marks the _____ anniversary of India becoming a Republic.”

Flag Ceremony: “We request _____ to lead the flag hoisting. Please rise for the National Anthem.”

